Meet Our Advisory Council!

Strategic Development Advisors

Erin Allgood, She/Her/Hers
Allgood Strategies
Erin Allgood grew up with a fierce love of sustainability, a passion for women’s rights, and a commitment to social justice. As the founder of Allgood Strategies, Erin harnesses entrepreneurship as a vehicle for social change. Her clients include folks launching social enterprises, nonprofits looking to authentically communicate and carry out their missions, and businesses that want to align their value with their cultures, products, and/or services.

Yusi Wang Turell, She/Her/Hers
Ph.D. University of New Hampshire
Yusi served as founding co-director of the University of New Hampshire’s Center for Social Innovation and Enterprise and is currently a Ph.D. Candidate researching how social entrepreneurs affect public policy in order to grow their impact. Prior to joining UNH in 2011, Yusi led new initiatives and national program growth at Citizen Schools and worked as a strategy consultant at Cap Gemini Ernst & Young’s Center for Business Innovation. Yusi holds degrees from Princeton University and from the University of Sussex through a British Marshall Scholarship. When she is not traveling to play Ultimate Frisbee, Yusi enjoys Seacoast living with her husband David and their two sons.

Campus Advisory Council

Jake Drenth, He/Him/His
Surplus Property Manager, Colorado State University
Jake Drenth manages the Surplus Property Department at Colorado State University and facilitates the final disposition of all moveable property for the University. He has been in this position for 11 years and is a member of the Presidents Sustainability Commission for the University. Aside from his duties at CSU, Jake is a member of several professional organizations and currently holds the position of Vice President of the board of directors for the University Surplus Property Association. As part of these professional organizations he has had the opportunity to present at regional and national conferences on topics such as Disposition Best Practices, Sales and Marketing, Data Security, Landfill Diversion, Reuse and Recycling, and Student Move Out.

Interested in learning more about Atlas? Visit www.postlandfill.org/atlas for more information!
Meet Our Advisory Council!

Jen Jones, She/Her/Hers
Sustainability Coordinator, Christopher Newport University
Jen Jones brings 9 years of experience to PLAN, working in sustainability at institutions of higher education. She currently serves as the Sustainability Coordinator at Christopher Newport University in Newport News, Virginia. Jen attended Millikin University in Decatur, IL for her BS in Biology and has a MS in Environmental Studies from the College of Charleston. Jen has a passion for movement and is a yoga and hip hop instructor in her free time.

Kendon Jung, He/Him/His
Zero Waste Program Manager, Arizona State University
Kendon Jung graduated from ASU with a Bachelors’ in Sustainable Urban Dynamics (2013) and a Master’s in Higher and Postsecondary Education (2016). Kendon has worked as a thought leader across the spectrum of sustainability. He has been on the forefront of desert water policy global corporate social impact, and urban resiliency in three nationally recognized research centers. He has extensive experience working for local businesses, non-profits, and public agencies to achieve sustainability goals. And most recently, Kendon is serving as the Chair for the City of Tempe’s Sustainability Commission, employing innovation, interdisciplinary collaboration, and long-term visioning to help guide Tempe towards a more sustainable future.

Lauren Lynch, She/Her/Hers
Zero Waste Intern, Williams College
Atlas Fellow Class of Spring 2020
My name is Lauren Lynch and I am a student at Williams College from Richmond, Virginia. At Williams, I am studying Political Science and Environmental Studies as well as working as a Zero Waste Intern for the Zilkha Center for Environmental Initiatives. My internship brought me to PLAN and I spent this past year working to complete the ATLAS assessment for my campus. My sustainability studies have brought me to Portugal, Chilean Patagonia, and Cape Eleuthera in the Bahamas. In the summer, I work at an outdoors camp in the Shenandoah Valley in Virginia.

Interested in learning more about Atlas? Visit www.postlandfill.org/atlas for more information!
Meet Our Advisory Council!

Anna Moore, She/Her/Hers
Sustainability Master’s Program, University of South Dakota
Atlas Fellow Class of Summer 2020
My name is Anna Moore and I’m in my second semester of the Sustainability master’s program at the University of South Dakota. I grew up in Northampton, Massachusetts, went to Oberlin College, and stayed in Ohio to work a couple concert seasons as Blossom Music Center’s sustainability coordinator after graduating. I came to USD for a graduate assistantship coordinating the young recycling program. I was lucky to be one of the Atlas fellows this past summer.

Kaity Robbins, She/Her/Hers
Zero Waste Manager, Boston University
My name is Kaity Robbins. I am the Zero Waste Manager at Boston University. In this role, I am responsible for designing, implementing, and promoting a Zero Waste strategy university-wide. Before joining BU, I was an Account Manager at River Road Waste Solutions (now a Rubicon company) where I worked with clients and haulers nationwide to implement waste and recycling programs. Prior to that, I worked at Two Owls Sustainability Consultants doing waste audits and large scale diversion initiatives. I graduated from Tulane University in New Orleans with a degree in Environmental Studies and a double minor in Business Management and Social Innovation.

Bo Solomon, He/Him/His
Sustainability Officer, Drexel University
Currently: University Sustainability Officer at Drexel University, Philadelphia PA.
Previously Director of Accounts Payable, Drexel University since July 2015.
Manager of Surplus Operations, University of Missouri System, 2006-2014.
Currently Treasurer University Surplus Property Association
https://www.universitysurplus.org/

Interested in learning more about Atlas? Visit www.postlandfill.org/atlas for more information!